London, March 12.

Yesterday came in the Mail from France of Saturday last.

From the Paris Gazette, dated March 18.

Madrid, Feb. 28. The King recovers his Strength every Day, and assisted on the 21st Instant at the Prayers of 40 Hours that were performed in the Chapel of the Palace. In the Evening there was a great Ball at Court, at which their Majesties, the Prince of Asturias, and the Infantes were present. Orders have been issued for sending some Men of War to cruize towards the West Indies ; there being Advice, that several Privateers with Imperial Colours are sailed that Way, and that the English had committed Hostilities in those Seas, having taken a Parache or Packet-Boat which sailed from Cadix for Vera Cruz. At the same time they were informed, that some Spanish Ships had taken eight English Vessels. They write from Lisbon, that the King has given the Government of Mazagan on the Coast of Africa, to Don Duarte Sodrè Pereira, formerly Governour of the Island of Madeira. Don Juan Cardoso Castello, Vicar-General of the new Patriarchate of West Lisbon, has received his Bulls from Rome, by which he is created Titular Archbishop of Lacedemon, and Suffragan to the Patriarchate.

Naples, Feb. 14. An Officer arrived here a few Days ago, being sent by General Zumjungen, to give the Viceroy an Account of the Condition of the German Troops, and the State of the Siege of Melazzo, of which we hear no new Particulars, except what is advised by private Letters, which say, that Baron Wachtendonck had had several Conferences with the Marquis de Lede, the chief Commander of the Spanish Forces in Sicily ; that they agreed to exchange the Prisoners on both sides, and those who were here have been shipped off for the Camp at Melazzo. Five hundred sick or wounded Germans or Piemontez, and 150 Horses, were lately brought over from thence to Sancta Eufemia, on board several Tartans, which are already returned thither to bring over more of the sick and wounded Germans. They are to be distributed in different Quarters, and at Reggio a 2d Hospital has been erected for that Service. The Marquis Rivarola, a Piemontez, who commands the Sicilian Gallies, is arrived here, and has been several times in Conference with the Viceroy. Some Vessels have been sent from the Coast of Calabria, to carry Ammunitions and Provisions to Syracuse, Trapani, and Cape Passaro, out of which Places, Part of the Piemontez Garrisons are to be taken, and German Troops sent thither in their Room.

Rome, Feb. 21. On the 17th the Funeral of Cardinal Cassini was performed in the Church of the Capuchins, upon which Occasion there was an extraordinary Concourse of People, who crowded to touch his Corpse, to kiss his Feet and Hands, preserve as Relicks. He was interred in the Church of Santa Prisca on the Mount Aventino, from which he took his Title, and to which he left a Legacy of 1500 Crowns for rebuilding the Vestry. On the 19th, Cardinal Acciaoli, Dean of the sacred College, who had a Relapse of a violent Fever accompanied with spitting of Blood, received the Viaticum, and disposed of the Pensions referred to him out of the Income of several Benefices ; and considering the Nature of his Indisposition, and his advanced Age, he being in his 89th Year, it is not likely he should recover. On the 20th, the Pope who had been in the Jesuits Church to assist at the Prayers of 40 Hours, passing near the Palace of the said Cardinal in his Return, stopt there to know how he did, and sent him his Benediction. His Holiness has ordered a Monastery of Dominicans to be built at Vellitri, of which Place most of the Persons who lately made publick Abjuration of their Errors in the Church of Maria della Minerva were Inhabitants, and a Tribunal of the Inquisition is to be established there.

London, March 12.

Yesterday arrived two Mails from Flanders.

From the Hague Courant, dated March 17.

Rome, Feb. 25. The Chevalier de St George embarked at Nettuno, in Order to go to Spain. Sig. Patino, the Spanish General, who lately arrived here from Sicily, set out from hence on the 22d for Madrid, to make a Report to the Spanish Court of the State of their Affairs in that Island.

Leghorne, Feb. 20. It is reported here, that the Pretender is embarked for Spain. It is said, that in his Passage by Florence, he called at the House of the Pope's Nuncio ; that he received at Rome 15000 Crowns of Cardinal Acquaviva, and 3000 Pistoles of a certain Merchant named Belloni, arising out of the Sale of the Household Goods of the late Queen Dowager of England. There is Advice from Cadix, that 30 Transports lay ready on that Coast, to receive on board 4 or 5000 Foot, and 1000 Horses, which were to sail under the Convoy of 6 or 7 Spanish Men of War, for Corunna, where more Forces would join them, and that those Troops which were to be commanded by the late Duke of Ormond, were designed for some important Expedition.

Milan.

Milan, Feb. 24. On the 19th Instant four English Noblemen were stop'd at Voghera and brought hither and confined in our Castle; it is believed they are of the Retinue of the Pretender, and that the late Earl of Mar is among them, which however is no more than Conjecture, great Secrecy being observed in all that relates to those Prisoners.

Milan, Feb. 28. The Persons brought hither from Voghera, are now reported to be only some of the Pretender's Domesticks, he having at some distance from Rome taken another Road, in all probability to embark for Spain on the Coast of Tuscany or at Civita Vecchia.

Vienna, March 4. On the 2d Instant, the Emperor sent Count Sinzendorf to the Empress Dowager Amalia, to notify to her, that his Imperial Majesty had resolved to give the Archduchess her eldest Daughter in Marriage to the Electoral Prince of Saxony, to which the said Empress consented. The Electoral Prince having taken his leave at Court, set out this Morning for Frankfurt. Letters from Rome confirm the Pretender's setting out from thence for Spain, and there is a Report that he intends to attempt a Landing in England or Ireland, being furnished with a Squadron and some Troops from that Kingdom.
